NETBALL
NEW ZEALAND

Our Strategic Objectives

OUR GOALS

OUR ACTIONS

ONE

The Netball volunteer is at the centre of everything we do

- NNZ, Zones, Centres, Clubs and Schools keep the volunteer front of mind
- The volunteer strategy is embedded into all NNZ departments and programmes
- Netball leads in the volunteer space

- Share the volunteer strategy
- Investigate ways to embed volunteerism into NNZ programmes, departments and staff policies
- Support Zones to help Centres action the volunteer strategy
- Capture the voice of the volunteer

TWO

Tools are developed to make Netball volunteering easier

- Volunteers and those managing volunteers are provided support
- The level of volunteering knowledge in Netball is lifted

- Make resources available to help recruit, retain, inspire, communicate with, develop and support volunteers
- Resources are presented at workshops and in webinars
- Investigate ways to direct people to volunteer opportunities
- Create a volunteer database

THREE

'Thanking' is part of our Netball Culture

- All volunteers are acknowledged all the time by everybody

- Promote a positive Netball environment
- In partnership with Cadbury, distribute 'Thank You Packs'
- Establish a 'Cadbury Volunteer of the Month' acknowledgement programme for Centres
- Award 'Cadbury Volunteer of the Year' in five categories nationally
- Stories of volunteering impact are collected and shared

FOUR

Netball volunteering is something that people want to do

- The benefit of volunteering on an individual's Hauora [health and well-being] is understood
- The benefit of volunteering on a community is understood
- People seek out Netball volunteer opportunities to add value to their lives and the lives of others
- Volunteering is cool, fun and more people want to contribute

- Start a national recruitment/retention drive
- Share messaging to educate people on the benefits of volunteering
- Stories of volunteering impact are collected and shared
